

NRA Personal Protection Outside the Home Course

sponsored by Aliquippa Bucktails

NRA Basic Personal Protection Outside The Home Course teaches students the knowledge, skills and attitude essential for avoiding dangerous confrontations and for the safe, effective and responsible use of a concealed pistol for self-defense outside the home. This is a 14-hour course. Reviews safe firearms handling and proper mindset to presentation from concealment and multiple shooting positions; essential skills and techniques needed to prevail in a life-threatening situation. An attorney will present Use of Force training and its legal aspects. Students should expect to shoot approximately 350 rounds of ammunition. This is the advanced-level concealed carry course, for which the Personal Protection in the Home Course is a prerequisite.

Instruction Includes concealment techniques and devices, presenting the handgun from concealment and utilizing cover and concealment outdoors, presentation from a concealed holster (or purse), shooting from cover, shooting one-handed, point shooting, instinctive shooting, low-light shooting, engaging multiple targets, moving while shooting, shooting from low cover, shooting from sitting, turning, prone and hip-shooting.

These skills and other presented in this course form the core shooting skills used to counter a life-threatening attack outside the home. In total there are seven segments including Strategies for Personal Safety Outside the Home; Carrying a Concealed Handgun and Presenting from Concealment; Developing Basic Defensive Shooting Skills; Developing Concealed Carry Skills; plus the all-important Self-Defense and the Law.
